

Bargaining Update January 2012

We have scheduled a new date for bargaining with the district. We will meet February 27th. We are hoping that we can continue to work towards a resolve. We will update our members with any new information.