LETTERS OF UNDERSTANDING

SUBROGATION RIGHTS

The following provisions apply to Article 11 - Sick Leave and Article 19 - Benefits:

1. All employees covered by the articles set out above do hereby on their behalf and on behalf of their dependents assign to the Employer in consideration of benefits provided in the said articles all rights or recovery against any person whose action caused or contributed to an occurrence giving rise to the payments under such articles to any employee and/or the employee's dependents. The Employer shall thereby subrogate to any rights the employee or the employee's dependents may have against any such third party for any amounts paid pursuant to the said articles or for which there is liability under the said articles. When the net amount recovered is after deduction of the costs of recovery not sufficient to provide complete indemnity for the loss suffered the amount remaining shall be divided between the Employer and the employee in the proportion by which the loss has been born by them.
2. The employees on their own and on their dependents' behalf agree that the said subrogated rights of the Employer may be exercised by the Employer bringing action for recovery in the name of the employee and/or dependent of the employee directly against a third party or by the Employer assigning its rights of subrogation to the employee or the employee's dependent in care of the solicitor representing such employee or employee's dependent. Such assignment will be on the basis that the Employer shall negotiate in its sole discretion such amount by way of legal fees and costs in connection with collecting monies paid to the employee under the articles as it deems acceptable.
3. The Employer shall pay into the appropriate insurance plan where applicable or credit the employee's sick leave entitlement where applicable any monies received as a result of exercising the aforesaid subrogation rights less legal fees and costs incurred and the member status and/or entitlement shall be restored to the extent of such monies applied.
